

I urge you to not to restrict states from keeping telemarketers from bothering me at home. Since the state of Indiana has restricted telemarketers:

- a. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home.
- b. I used to receive at least 10 calls per week, now I only them occasionally. I prefer to get exercise by playing tennis or playing golf, not running to the phone.

If I hadn't wanted telemarketing restricted, I would not have taken the time to put my name on the Attorney General's list. If you choose to make this list less restrictive, you will be doing an injustice to the people of the state of Indiana.
